Presidents Corner: Well guys, it's November and by now most of us have decided where to Ski this year and have purchased our passes. All we need is SNOW! In two weeks, Nov.14th we have our Pray for Snow party at Charlie's. I hope you have your tickets because they are going fast the only tickets I know of are up at Charlie's, about twenty of them. I need some more volunteers to man the doors at the party, please step up and take your turn we need two guys per time slot. It's a great way for you new members to get to know other guys in the club. Dale has a tropical theme this year. Congrats to our three new regular members which were elected at our last meeting. They are Bob Lawrence, Tom Reynolds, and Aubrey Lyons. Jason Hughes was elected as an Assoc. It's also nice to see the other new applicants. After you attend three meetings or events we can vote on you. Mingle and get to know us. Welcome! Our next meeting is at the Buffalo Gap, Nov 10th, doors open at 615p and the meeting starts at 7p. Coffee: Four Catholic men and a Catholic woman were having coffee after mass. The first man tells his friends, "My son is a priest, when he walks into a room and everyone calls him 'Father'." The second man chirps, "My son is a Bishop. When he walks into a room people call him 'Your Grace'." The third man says, "My son is a Cardinal. When he enters a room everyone says 'Your Eminence'." The fourth man says, "My son is the Pope. When he walks into a room people call him 'Your Holiness'." Since the lone woman was sipping her coffee in silence, the four men gave her a look and said, "Well....?" She proudly replies, "I have a daughter, slim, tall, 38 Double D breasts, 24" waist, and 34" hips. When she walks into a room people say,"Oh My God."
