Presidents Corner:

Hi Fellas,

Well, we did it we pulled off Pray for Snow! This year's event was quite the challenge. First we had to cancel the event at Charlie's Mountain View in Government Camp. Then we had to try to find a new venue which was not easy, but we came up with Sah Hah Lee golf course. And then just when it looked like all was good the band was forced to cancel, the day before the event. Fortunately Bob Lawrence was able to scramble and find us a fantastic band and ended up with a very fun Pray for Snow party. The venue was great everyone had an awesome time. Thanks so much to Steve and Tracy for Sah Hah Lee.

This year is starting to move pretty quickly. One more meeting in November and then our only meeting in December at Hillcrest sports. Then our club Christmas party in December. Then we should all be well into ski season and some racing. Looking forward to seeing everyone at the next meeting.

Cheers, Bob

Pray for Snow:

We had our Pray for Snow party at Sah-Hah-Lee Golf Course on November 13. There was a COVID issue with Hit Machine so Bob Lawrence scrambled to find a substitute band and we ended up with Cadillacs for Everyone (you might remember them from Pray for Snows past) – way to go Bob! We had a good crowd show up, weather was decent, so the outside deck worked well, and the band and dancing were great. Thanks to everyone who helped put this on, including our hosts, Steve and Tracy Lisac. We should end up a few hundred on the positive side.

PACRAT Racing:

PACRAT will be having a split-division 2022 race season that will include Friday and Sunday Division races. This is an adaptation from last year's covid modified season which vastly improved course conditions and created less waiting times between race runs. We will not return to night races this season, all races will be day races starting around 10am. The race schedule includes four Friday Division races, four Sunday Division races, plus a final Combined Division race on a Sunday to wrap up the season (see PACRAT website for race dates). Online register is open (go to the PACRAT website www.pacrats.org). We will figure out teams once everyone who wants to do PACRAT signs up. If you want to race for the club this year, sign-up under Ruttin' Rats for now.

A man boards a plane with six kids. After they get settled in their seats, a woman sitting across the aisle leans over to him and asks, "Are all of those kids yours?" He replies, "No. I work for a condom company. These are customer complaints."

The Golfers

A Catholic Priest, an Indian Doctor, a rich Chinese Businessman and an Aussie were waiting one morning for a particularly slow group of golfers in front of them.

The Aussie fumed, "What's with those blokes? We must have been waiting for fifteen minutes!"

The Indian Doctor chimed in, "I don't know, but I've never seen such poor golf!"

The Chinese Businessman called out "Move it, time is money"

The Catholic Priest said, "Here comes George the greens keeper. Let's have a word with him."

"Hello, George!", said the Catholic Priest, "What's wrong with that group ahead of us? They're rather slow, aren't they?"

George the greens keeper replied, "Oh, yes. That's a group of blind fire fighters. They lost their sight saving our clubhouse from a fire last year, so we always let them play for free anytime."

The group fell silent for a moment.

The Catholic Priest said, "That's so sad. I think I will say a special prayer for them tonight."

The Indian Doctor said, "Good idea. I'm going to contact my ophthalmologist colleague and see if there's anything he can do for them."

The Chinese Businessman replied, "I think I'll donate $50,000 to the fire-fighters in honor of these brave souls"

The Aussie said, "Why can't they play at night?"

Making a baby.

The Smiths were unable to conceive children and decided to use a surrogate father to start their family. On the day the proxy father was to arrive, Mr. Smith kissed his wife goodbye and said, 'Well, I'm off now. The man should be here soon.'

Half an hour later, just by chance, a door-to-door baby photographer happened to ring the doorbell, hoping to make a sale. 'Good morning, Ma'am', he said, 'I've come to.'

'Oh, no need to explain,' Mrs. Smith cut in, embarrassed, 'I've been expecting you.'

'Have you really?' said the photographer. 'Well, that's good. Did you know babies are my specialty?'

'Well that's what my husband and I had hoped Please come in and have a seat !'

After a moment she asked, blushing, 'Well, where do we start?'

'Leave everything to me. I usually try two in the bathtub, one on the couch, and perhaps a couple on the bed. And sometimes the living room floor is fun. You can really spread out there.'

'Bathtub, living room floor? No wonder it didn't work out for Harry and me !'

'Well, Ma'am, none of us can guarantee a good one every time. But if we try several different positions and I shoot from six or seven angles, I'm sure you'll be pleased with the results.'

'My, that's a lot !', gasped Mrs. Smith.

'Ma'am, in my line of work a man has to take his time. I'd love to be In and out in five minutes, but I'm sure you'd be disappointed with that.'

'Don't I know it,' said Mrs. Smith quietly.

The photographer opened his briefcase and pulled out a portfolio of his baby pictures.

'This was done on the top of a bus,' he said.

'Oh, my God !' Mrs. Smith exclaimed, grasping at her throat.

'And these twins turned out exceptionally well - when you consider their mother was so difficult to work with.'

'She was difficult?' asked Mrs. Smith.

'Yes, I'm afraid so. I finally had to take her to the park to get the job done right. People were crowding around four and five deep to get a good look'

'Four and five deep ?' said Mrs. Smith, her eyes wide with amazement.
'Yes', the photographer replied. 'And for more than three hours, too. The mother was constantly squealing and yelling - I could hardly concentrate, and when darkness approached I had to rush my shots.
Finally, when the squirrels began nibbling on my equipment, I just had to pack it all in.' □
Mrs. Smith leaned forward. 'Do you mean they actually chewed on your, uh....equipment ?'
'It's true, Ma'am, yes.. Well, if you're ready, I'll set-up my tripod and we can get to work right away.'
'Tripod?'
'Oh yes, Ma'am. I need to use a tripod to rest my Canon on. It's much too big to be held in the hand very long.'
Mrs Smith fainted....
